2. Description of Business

There were no significant changes in our business during the first quarter of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2021.

There were also no changes in major subsidiaries.

2. Business Overview

1. Risk Factors

Regarding the business and financial situation stated in this report, there were no matters that may have significant impact on the investment decision and no significant changes in the risk factors stated in the annual securities report for the previous fiscal year during the three months ended June 30, 2020.

There were no material events.

2. Management Analysis of Financial Position, Operating Results and Cash Flows

Forward-looking statements below were determined as of June 30, 2020.

(1) Overview of Operating Results

In the first quarter of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2021, the economic situation deteriorated sharply affected by the impact of COVID-19 and Japanese economy has been in extremely difficult situation. Regarding the future, we are raising the level of social economic activity gradually with taking preventive measures for spread of the infection.

In overseas market, economic activity has been restarted after lockdown for COVID-19. However, the number of infected person are growing again and the future outlook has been still unclear.

Under this situation, Hirose group has been expanding global business mainly for smartphone market, automotive market and industrial market, and promoting reinforcement of development, sales and production system for new products with highly added value to respond advanced market needs quickly. Business for smartphone and consumer market has remained strong, but the sales of automotive has been slow down. As a result, sales revenue in the first quarter decreased by 3.0% to JPY 27,400 million compared to the same period of the previous fiscal year. Operating profit increased by 10.4% to JPY 5,896 million, and quarterly income attributable to owners of the parent company increased by 8.6% to JPY 4,417 million as compared with the first quarter of fiscal 2019.

The business results by reporting segments are as stated below.

[Multi-pin connectors]

Our flagship multi-pin connectors include a variety of connector types such as circular connectors, rectangular connectors, connectors for ribbon cables, connectors for printed circuit boards, connectors used for FPCs (flexible printed circuits boards) and nylon connectors. This kind of connectors are used widely, such as for smartphones, tablet PC, communication equipment, automotive electronics, measuring and control equipment, FA equipment, and medical electronics equipment, as well as other industrial equipment. We expect that demands for this connectors will grow associated with progress of advanced information and telecommunications network society, and energy saving society considering environment in the future. Segment sales for the first quarter of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2021 decreased by 2.1% to JPY 24,314 million, operating profit increased by 13.3% to JPY 5,648 million compared with the first quarter of the fiscal 2019.

[Coaxial connectors]

Coaxial connectors are a special type of high-performance connector used primarily for microwave and other high-frequency signals. This is used mainly for microwave communications devices, satellite communications equipment, electronic measuring instruments, smartphones, 4K and 8K broadcasting equipment, and other electronic equipment. Optical fiber connectors and coaxial switches are also included in this segment. Segment sales for the first quarter of the fiscal 2020 decreased by 4.7% to JPY 2,231 million. Operating profit increased by 4.9% to JPY 263 million.

[Other products]

This segment includes micro switches and instruments for connectors. Segment sales for the first quarter of the fiscal 2020 decreased by 18.7% to JPY 855 million, operating loss resulted JPY 15 million (FY2019.1Q: operating profit JPY 104 million.)

(2) Overview of Cash Flows

Cash and cash equivalents at the first quarter of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2021 increased by JPY 1,982 million to JPY 52,543 million compared to the end of the fiscal year ended March 31, 2020.

a. Cash flows from operating activities

Net cash provided by operating activities increased by JPY 9,816 million. (In the fiscal 2019.1Q, it increased by JPY 8,365 million.) This increase was mainly due to a rise in capital by appropriating quarterly income before tax, JPY 6,092 million, and depreciation and amortization, JPY 4,076 million.

b. Cash flows from investing activities

Net cash used in investing activities decreased by JPY 3,299 million. (In the fiscal 2019.1Q, it decreased by JPY 739 million.) This is mainly due to decrease in capital by payments for purchase of tangible fixed assets, JPY 4,446 million.

c. Cash flows from financing activities

Net cash used in financing activities decreased by JPY 4,556 million. (In the fiscal 2019.1Q, it decreased by JPY 4,538 million.) This is because of decrease in capital by the dividend payment, JPY 4,352 million.

(3) Analysis of financial condition

Total assets of FY2020.1Q increased by JPY 992 million to JPY 343,636 million compared to the end of the previous consolidated fiscal year because cash and cash equivalents, and inventories increased. Total liabilities decreased by JPY 118 million to JPY 36,385 million due to the decrease in income tax payable. Although retained earnings declined due to the dividend of surplus, other components of equity including quarterly income and translation adjustment increased, and total equity increased by JPY 1,110 million to JPY 307,251 million. As a result, total equity attributable to owners of the parent increased by 0.1% to 89.4% compared to the end of the previous fiscal year.

(4) Assumptions used for accounting estimates

There are no significant changes in the accounting estimated from “Management Analysis of Financial Position, Operating Results and Cash Flows” stated in the annual securities report of FY 2019 and assumptions used for the estimates.

(5) Research and development

Our research and development expenses for the three months ended June 30, 2020 were JPY 1,741 million. As the achievement of research and development activities, fixed assets including tools appropriated to JPY 664 million. When these amount are added up, the total of R&D investment amount was JPY 2,405 million. There were no significant changes in research and development activities for the period.

② Information on fair value measurement classified into level2 and level3

Debt instruments classified into level2 of the fair value hierarchy are measured using observable postulate including credit rating or discount rate in the market. Derivatives are assessed based on forward exchange rate.

Fair value of equity instruments classified into level3 are mainly assessed by Net Asset Approach. Fair values increase (decrease) along with the rise (decline) in net asset value. Significant changes in fair value are not expected when unobservable inputs are changed to reasonably possible alternative assumptions.

Financial instruments classified into Level3 is measured based on accounting policies of Hirose group and the result of the measurement is approved by a responsible person of administration group.

There are no significant changes in financial assets classified Level3 for the first quarter of the fiscal 2019 and 2020.

12. Additional information

The situation affected by COVID-19 has been unclear. In Japan, after the state of emergency has been lifted, the economic activities are recovering gradually. In other hand, the impact of COVID-19 has been expanding in some overseas area.

Under this situation, Hirose group are able to operate production and sales activities at almost normal level in each area of all Hirose group as of filing date of this report. Although the market situation will continue being unclear, it is expected that the impact of the infection will decrease on the assumption that the second-wave and third-wave will not occur.

Based on the forecast stated above, we conducted accounting estimation during the first quarter of the fiscal 2020. In the fiscal 2020, there may be a negative impact on our business continuously, but we consider that the impact will not be significant influence to the consolidated financial statements.
